THE NEW TEMPLE

THE CORNER-STONE IS LAID WITH MASONIC HONORS.

Eloquent Oration By Hon. Paul Neumann—Full Account of the Impressive Ceremony.

Tuesday afternoon the cornerstone of the new Masonic Temple, on the corner of Alakea and Hotel streets, was laid with appropriate ceremonies by Hawaiian Lodge, No. 21, F. & A. M., for which lodge the new temple is being erected.

Everything passed off pleasantly and the impressive Masonic ceremony was witnessed by a vast concourse of people. During the morning a number of carpenters were engaged erecting a platform for the invited guests. The platform was a covered one and seats were provided for 300 people, with a special row of chairs for the Royal party.

About 2:30 o'clock the procession started from the building at the corner of Fort and Queen streets, at present occupied by Hawaiian Lodge, and marched up Fort street to King, along King to Alakea and up Alakea to the scene of the ceremony, proceeding in the following order:

The Procession.

Royal Hawaiian Band,
Henri Berger, Conductor.

Grand Tyler, with Drawn Sword, Bro. John Morris Angus.

Two Grand Stewards, with White Rods,
Bro. Charles Jerome Campbell,
Bro. Archibald Forrest Gillfillan.

Grand Marshal,
Bro. James Anderson King.

Bro. Robert Catton.

Grand Orator and Grand Chaplain, Bro. Paul Neumann.

P. M. Alexander Mackintosh, Principal Architect Bearing Working Tools,
P. M. Clinton Briggs Ripley,
Grand Secretary.

P. M. John Phillips,
Grand Treasurer.

P. M. James Melville Monearrat,
Grand Bible Bearer,
Bro. Charles Hammer,

Supported by two Stewards with White Rods,
Bro. William Francis Love,
Bro. Abraham Fernandez.

Grand Junior Warden,
P. M. William Montrose Graham.

Grand Senior Warden, P. M. Theodore Cunningham Porter.

Deputy Grand Master,
P. M. John Adair Hassinger.

Grand Master,
P. M. William Fessenden Allen.

Supported by two Grand Deacons with Rods,
Bro. Clarence Linden Crabbe,
Bro. Milton Nelson Sanders.

Grand Junior Warden,
Bro. David Bowers Smith.

Two Stewards with White Rods, Bro. William George Ashley,
Bro. William Lewers Hopper.

When the procession reached the new building, thanks to Mr. E.
B. Thomas, the contractor of the edifice, everything was in readiness for the ceremony of laying the corner-stone.

During the ceremony, odes were sung by the choir of St. Andrew's Cathedral, Mr. Wray Taylor ac-

THE LEGISLATURE

One Hundred and Fifty-Sixth
Day.

TUESDAY, DEC. 27.

The House met at 9 A. M. Roll call, twenty-six members present. Quorum at 9:08 A. M. The minutes were read and approved.

PETITIONS.

Rep. Nawahi presented a petition from South Hilo praying that a new Constitution be drawn up.

The Clerk read a petition from M.
Rose, of Kaneohe, praying that investigation be made of certain Crown Land leases which Hon. J. E. Bush refused to take any action in the matter. Referred to Hon. J. E. Bush.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

Noble Williams reported several bills printed.

RESOLUTIONS.

Rep. Edmonds presented a resolution praying that the Chairman of the Judiciary Committee be requested to return Bill 91 on Waialua Water Works, and that it be made the Order of the Day for Thursday, December 29th.

Rep. Smith, Chairman of the Judiciary Committee, replied that he had not seen the bill, but the committee would soon report.

Rep. Edmonds then withdrew his resolution.

The House proceeded at 9:25 A. M. to the

ORDER OF THE DAY.

Unfinished business: Second reading of Bill 139, Election Law.

Section 4 was read.

The section was stricken out.

Section 5 provides for specimen ballots of red and green.

Rep. Kamaoia moved that specimen ballots be the same as ballots for Representatives and Nobles.

Section 5 passed as amended.

Section 6 was read. It amends Section 75 as follows: "In cases where general and special elections are held at the same time and are incorporated upon the same ballot, if the provisions of sub-Section 1 be violated in one or more of the several elections, thus held upon one ballot, the whole ballot shall not be considered as invalid, but only the election or elections or general in which such violation occurs."

The motion to strike out the section was lost and it passed as in the bill.

Rep. Nawahi opposed perpetual tinkering with the Election Law.

After considerable debate Section 7 passed as in the bill.

The Title and Enacting clause passed and Thursday was set for the third reading.

Consideration of the Constitutional Convention bill in Committee of the Whole, Rep. Kanihi in the chair.

The majority and minority reports of the committee were read. The former opposed the bill and the latter favored it.

Rep. Kamaoia was in favor of the bill. He moved it be considered section by section.

Noble Kanihi did not favor a constitutional convention. Those who wished to have a new constitution could go before the country on that special issue at the next election. The Constitution had been accepted by Sovereign and people, and the people had a great deal more to say about the government than they ever had under the old constitution. It did not satisfy everybody of course. The great expense of a constitutional convention was a further reason for not bringing the matter up now. He therefore moved that when the committee rise it recommend referring the bill to the Legislature of 1894.

Rep. Nawahi favored the bill. It was not intended to bring trouble upon the country, but simply to secure a Constitution which would be satisfactory to the people. The present Constitution gave the people too much power. Some of it should be given to the sovereign. It was true that the people had accepted the Constitution, but it was unwillingly. It had been forced upon the King with threats of violence, and had shortened his days.
It was providential that so many of those who had been engaged in this had died or been compelled to leave the country. He called on the Cabinet to assist in passing this bill. If they did so, he should support them; if not, he might be compelled to vote against them. He had no personal grudge against any of them.
